

Dorothy E. Hower

July 23, 1915 - July 23, 2010

Dorothy E. Hower, 95, of Iron Mountain, passed away Friday, July 23, 2010, at Hyland Nursing Home.

Dorothy was born April 29, 1915, in Big Falls, Wis., and was the daughter of the late William and Caroline (Weideman) Polk. She was the last surviving member of their 12 children. After she graduated from high school, Dorothy attended nursing school in Milwaukee. She worked as a practical nurse and pharmacy assistant for the VA Medical Center for 22 years, retiring in 1979.

Dorothy married Charles Hower on Nov. 26, 1938. They were residents of this area for 37 years. Charles preceded her in death on Dec. 16, 1987.

Dorothy was a member of Our Saviour's Lutheran Church. She enjoyed playing cards and working crossword puzzles. Dorothy was a fabulous cook and baker.

Dorothy is survived by her daughter-in-law, Verna Hower; her grandchildren, Mark Hower of Iron Mountain and Dianna (John) McDonald of Breitung Township; great-grandchildren, Taylor and Brady McDonald; and numerous nieces and nephews.

In addition to her parents, brothers and sisters and her husband, she was also preceded in death by her son, Tom Hower in 2008.

Private memorial services are being held. Rev. Lee Liverance will officiate.

Burial will be in Iron Mountain Cemetery Park.
