“ Dear Curtis and family:
In times such as these, it is often difficult to express in one's thoughts in words. Cecilia and I were very saddened to learn of Dorothy's passing. While we only met the two of you a few times at Mom and Dad's home, we feel as though we know you well from all of the stories they told us of time spent with the two of you. I know mom and dad enjoyed the many, many things all of you did together. It is our prayer, that in this most difficult time, our Lord will grant you comfort, peace, and understanding. Our deepest sympathy.

“ Dear Curtis and Family,

We apologize for not being able to come but our thoughts and prayers are with you. Words do too little to comfort, but please know we care.

We love you.
