“ Dorothy's love of the Lord, and lifetime of learning was evident by her service to others and her smile. How many people try to use a computer in their 90's? That was Dorothy. She loved being a grandmother to other peoples children at Fortune Lake Lutheran Camp. It is a joy to think of Dorothy, but sad to know her journey on earth is complete. She will be missed by all whose lives she touched. Jesus has opened the door wide as she enters her heavenly home and joins others of her family who have gone before, including her son in law Jim Lacourt this past week. May the Lord's comforting arms embrace Ev and all of Dorothy's family when it's most needed. She was a proud mother and grandmother filled with love for all. My prayers and heartfelt sympathy are with you now and in the coming days and weeks.
