“ Hello to the children of Dorothy and Otto,
In the early 1950's we all played on your parents farm together .My brothers are , David , Mike , Jim Rice and I am Judy Rice Koch.
Our parents were close friends then and all us kids played together and I have fond memories of good meals, and your lovely kind parents . I think our mom's even went to Kinsford High together . My mom once said they were 'chum's as they grew up .
My deepest sympathy to all of you and please know the Rice children use to stop by and see your parents When we came to visit my brother and family .
Once after I married I had to have my husband meet your folks and they insisted we stay for dinner . The Rice kids just loved them a lot .

I live in Spokane Wa. since 1961 and have been married that long .
Sweet Blessing of God to all of you
. Love , Judy Rice Koch
