“ I did not realize till yesterday that Doug had passed. He was an old high school friend and we crossed paths on Facebook. He had spent some time out in the PNW where I live and shared some experiences. I knew that he had been in the hospital with some serious health issues. He was a kind, interesting, positive person with a good sense of humor who under-stated his suffering. May he be living joyfully in heaven now.

“ So sorry for your loss. Doug was always so happy so lucky. He was on our dart team at the Lites so I would suspect he is up in Heaven with Sharon his partner shootin' a game or two.

“ So sorry to hear about the passing of Doug. I was the manager of the bank in Florence and I helped Doug with his mortgage and other things. He was so happy to be living in Florence out in the country. He was such a kind, friendly, soft spoken, gentle giant. I will miss him! My thoughts and prayers are with you at this time of sorrow!!!
