

Duane Bauldry

November 27, 1920 - November 27, 2006

REYNOLDSBURG, Ohio - Duane D. Bauldry, 86, a longtime resident of Reynoldsburg, passed away Monday, Nov. 27, 2006, after a short illness. For the past three years, he was a resident of Sunrise of Gahanna.

Duane was born in Chicago on Sept. 17, 1920, to the late Ferdinand and Margaret Bauldry. They moved to Iron Mountain, where Duane grew up and graduated from Iron Mountain Senior High School in 1939. Duane then attended the University of Idaho before entering the U.S. Army Air Corps in August 1942.

Duane was assigned to the 432 Bombardment Squadron, 17th Bombardment Group (B-26 Martin Marauder) and served with distinction as an aircraft electrical mechanic. He saw action in Tunisia, Sicily, Naples-Foggia, Rome-Arno, France, Rhineland, Northern Apennines and central Europe. During his tour he was awarded the French Croix de Guerre with Palm, Good Conduct Medal, and the Distinguished Unit Badge with Oak Leaf Cluster and six Battle Stars. Duane was honorably discharged as a sergeant in October 1945.

On Oct. 27, 1945, he married Edith M. Carollo of Iron Mountain. Shortly after their marriage, they moved to Ohio first living in Newark before buying property and moving to Reynoldsburg.

Both Duane and Edith were heavily involved in the Veterans of Foreign Wars and were life members. They held many offices over the years and were members of Post 9473 in Reynoldsburg.

Duane was by trade a machinist. but was a very talented carpenter and a capable electrician. He enjoyed many summers in Northern Michigan, where both he and Edith co-owned a cottage with their nephew, Michael.

Duane is survived by his nephews and their families, Michael (Karen) Marlow of Green Bay, Wis., Paul (Marian) Marlow of Chaska, Minn., and Bill (Lorraine) Hicks of Iron Mountain.

Duane was preceded in death by his wife of 56 years, Edith (Carollo) Bauldry, who passed away on May 4, 2002, and his half-sister, Agnes Hicks of Iron Mountain.

Graveside services will be held on Tuesday at 10:30 a.m. at Cemetery Park in Iron Mountain. Fr. Charles Piper will officiate.

Burial will be Cemetery Park.
