

Durl W. Bradley

July 5, 1946 - April 30, 2023

Durl Walton Bradley, 76, of Iron Mountain died Sunday, April 30, 2023, at Marshfield Medical Center – Dickinson.

Durl was born on July 5, 1946, in Manistique, MI, to the late Elmer and Erma (Welch) Bradley. After graduating from high school he worked as a machine operator at Kimberly Clark in Munising until he retired. A very caring and selfless man, Durl would help anyone at any time, doing anything, with not only a helping hand but a very helping heart. A devoted Packer fan, he enjoyed feeding the deer and Chic-a-dees, working in the yard, reading and solving crosswords, having a glass of Lambrusco wine, playing guitar and singing and, most importantly, having family time. He was a member of Maranatha Assembly of God, and above all, everything he did in life began with his faith and love in God.

He is survived by his wife, Dorothy “Dot” Bradley; three daughters, Robin (Bob) Bradley Brown, Lori (Scott) Bradley Glaister and Kim Vick; a son Bob (Sherri) Vick; a daughter-in-law, Tracy Rzanca; a sister, Ginger Boyd; many grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, not to forget Bitzee and Katee, his loving dog companions.

Along with his parents, Durl was preceded in death by his first wife, Linda Bradley; two sons, David Scott Bradley and David Leland Bradley; and a sister, Joan Rose.

A visitation will be held Saturday, May 13, 2023, from 10:00 - 11:00 a.m. at Maranatha Assembly of God Church in Kingsford. An 11:00 a.m. service will follow with Rev. Dave Wilton officiating.

Condolences may be expressed to the family of Durl Bradley online at www.erickson-rochon-nash.com.

The family has entrusted the Erickson-Rochon & Nash Funeral Home of Iron Mountain with the arrangements.
