“ Steve and family you have my deepest sympathy. I'm sure Pat is at peace now it sounds as if she fought a good fight but it was time for her to be at peace now. Planned to be at the wake but had problems with my truck. Steve I remember the time she tore all the carpet out of the living room and had it in the garage when you came home when you told me I said I would have done the same thing. Sorry I didn't make it.

“ *Dear Steve & Family:
Needless to say that I was shocked to read the Gazette today to find Pat's name listed! It doesn't seem possible such a young/charming lady is no longer with us. Although our association was rather short - it was long enough for me to find her qualities and work ethic outstanding.
Please accept our deepest sympathy for your loss.*

“ Steve, David and Carol: All of us want to express our condolences at the loss you so obviously feel, but we also want to share in the joy of knowing the realization of Pat's faith. She can share in this statement by the Apostle Paul; "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith." May the thoughts and prayers of so many be a strength to you all today and the days to follow.

“ Because of the lumber industry, Pat and I had a friendship that has spanned many years. Although location kept us from spending time together, we always searched each other out at meetings and events, which I recall fondly. There were phone conversations and of course, email. No matter how long we had been apart, our conversations started up again like it was yesterday. Pat was a "kindred spirit" to me, and her outlook on life and resolve to move forward is such an inspiration. I will miss her terribly but know my life has been blessed by having her as a dear friend.

“ I went to school with Pat from kindergarten through one year at Michigan Tech. I remember serving at the Strawberry Banquet with her and going swimming at the beach afterwards. We went to Tech mixers together and ice skating at the Dee Stadium. I had lost touch with her and only in the last few years had regained contact through emails. She was such an honest and genuine person and shared her faith openly. I have many fond memories of her. She was a person of quality and character.
My prayers are with her family.

“ Steve, David and Carol: Although my contact with Pat was limited, I always considered her to be a fine, decent, thoughtful and amazingly intelligent person. She knew when to champion a cause, and had a gift for knowing when to reach out to another person, a gift she never hesitated to bestow. Pat truly made others better just for having known her. You're in my thoughts and have my deepest sympathy. Dianne Biery
