FELCH - Edith E. Edberg, 87, of Felch, died Sunday, Aug. 19, 2007, at the home of her daughter and son-in-law in Kingsford.

She was born July 6, 1920, in New Egypt, N.J., to John and Esther (Johnson) Anderson. When she was two years-old, her father died and she and her mother moved to Metropolitan to be near family there. She was raised and educated in Metropolitan and Armada, Mich., graduating from Felch High School in 1936 at the age of 16.

She attended Eastern Michigan University and then married Arnold Edberg on Sep. 20, 1940. He preceded her in death in 1981. After six children, she returned to college and completed her teaching degree at Northern Michigan University. She also studied at Oxford University in England.

She began her teaching career at Longfellow School in Foster City, then taught in Felch and retired from the North Dickinson Schools.

In addition to teaching elementary school, she was a piano teacher for many years and was very proud of the accomplishments of her pupils. Her commitment to her music students continued long after her retirement as she accompanied students in solo and ensemble competition well into her 80s.

Her passions included travel (especially to England), reading, classical music and opera, crossword puzzles, knitting and needlepoint, good conversation and pride in her family which included her Zion church family. Her life was one of service to her church and community. She was the organist and choir director at Zion Lutheran Church in Metropolitan and was honored by the congregation on July 8 for more than 50 years of service.

She was a member, pianist and resident philosopher of the Kiwanis Club. She was recognized as a First Lady of Dickinson County and a Bresnan Super Senior. She served her community as a hospital gift shop volunteer, VFW Auxiliary member, Cub Scout, Girl Scout and 4-H leader and numerous activities involving church and young people.

“ To all of Edith's Family,

Our thoughts and prayers are with you. Edith was such a lively person who had so much joy to share. She encouraged everyone and only seemed to see our good sides.

I have recalled over the last days some of the good times when she would take Andy and I to a Disney movie, or a sight seeing trip like to the Keewenaw Peninsula. We were really sincere singing those hymns while she drove on Brockway Mountain Drive!

She was our Sunday School & Bible School teacher from the early days and of course the only organist I ever saw at Zion. It was always especially comforting to see her at the organ when I returned home. The visits have been less and less frequent over time yet she was a constant. She is practically synonymous with Zion. It will be quite a different experience to come to church without her at the organ.

We all share your loss of such a fine lady.

“ Edith was such a central part of my daughter's growing up years. Gen took piano lessons for years. We looked forward to her visits, with her chatty nature and her "waft" of perfume. She was an incredible person and our family, along with the entire community, will miss her greatly. Our thoughts and prayers are with you

“ To the entire Edberg Family:
My Mother was a cousin of Edith Edberg. I grew up in Felch from 1939 to 1956 at which time we moved to Manitowoc, Wisconsin. During that period of time, your Mother taught me how to play the piano. My sincere sympathies to your whole family.
