“ Our sympathy to you on your loss. How well we remember our time together at the New Testament Church. We have moved to Florida, almost 12 yrs. ago, to be full time residents. So, we haven't seen you, but have many fond memories of our times together. God bless you and give you His peace and comfort.

“ Grandma, I miss you soooooo much. Your time on this Earth is done and you are now in your heavenly home with the Lord our Savior. When I was a child Tony and I loved writing on your white birch trees and building our very own campground on your property. I'd sleep over and we'd hold hands and fall asleep together. Picking raspberries in the garden and the year we all picked a number and chose our very own handmade horses you made for us were just a few of my favorite memories.. Of course as the only boy, Tony got the bull. Thank you for being you and loving me unconditionally.
