“ Dear Monica and Bob,

We will remember all the "good" times with Auntie Eleanor and her "chocolates and knitting" and "playing cards". She is now with Uncle Frank, Uncle Ed and Auntie Marie, and my Dad and we are sure that are happy to be together again.

*Love and Sympathy,
Kathy and Tony*

“ Dear Monnie, Bob and Marc,

When I think of your Mom (Grandma) I think of her flower garden and how beautifully she kept your little house on the east side. I loved going there as a little girl because she made me feel so welcomed and special. Auntie Eleanor was a generous and loving woman and I will remember her smile and joyful personality always! Just like you, I'll miss her too.
