

Elmer Parolini

August 4, 2009

IRON MOUNTAIN - Elmer R. Parolini (Pita Kaiyo), 91, of Iron Mountain, formerly of Las Vegas, passed away on Monday, Aug. 3, 2009, with his wife, Elizabeth, daughter, Mary and son-in-law, Jerry at his side.

He was born July 23, 1918, in Georgetown, Wash., son of the late Rudolph and Enricketta Parolini. Elmer was educated in Seattle, Wash., by the Irish Christian Brothers.

After his education, Elmer married Elizabeth Monica Cologna in Vancouver, British Columbia on May 25, 1928. He served in the U.S. Marine Corp and was stationed in China during World War II.

He leaves his beloved wife of 70 years, Elizabeth; four children, Ken (Rosario) Parolini, Jim Parolini, Joseph (Brenda Blake) Parolini, and Mary (Jerry) Romitti; a brother, Eugene (Cathy) Parolini. Elmer's extended family includes beloved grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great grandchildren.

Visitation will be Thursday from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m. at St. Mary and St. Joseph Catholic Church in Iron Mountain.

The Mass of Christian Burial will follow at 11 a.m. at the church. Fr. Daniel Zaloga will celebrate the Mass of Christian Burial and Deacon Don Christy will concelebrate the Mass.

Burial will be in the Quinnesec Cemetery.

“ Ken, Jim, Joe and Mary,

I will have fond memories of Uncle Elmer forever! The homemade bread, the blueberry pancakes, the smell of the coffee brewing and his ever ending smile.

He was one of a kind and I see why our family always had such good times together.

I love you all and am so sorry that I will not be there with you in person.

Love Marguerite
