

Ernest Lidbeck

February 4, 1936 - February 4, 2008

KINGSFORD - Ernest L. Lidbeck, 72, of 505 E. Sagola Ave. in Kingsford, passed away Monday, Feb. 4, 2008, at the Veterans Administration Medical Center in Iron Mountain after a two year battle with cancer.

Ernest was born Sept. 30, 1935, in Iron Mountain son of the late Ernest and Alice (Patrick) Lidbeck. He joined the U.S. Army and served in Germany.

On Oct. 8, 1955 he married his high school sweetheart, Darlene Marcelini. Ernest and Darlene lived in Milwaukee, where Ernest went to barber school. Upon completion of that schooling, they moved to Appleton where Ernest was a barber and eventually worked for Bergstrom Chevrolet. For a period of time, Ernest and Darlene had moved back to the Kingsford area to buy a family grocery store, Lidbeck's Market. After retiring, Ernest worked part-time as a security guard at Grede Foundry.

He loved music, wood carving, working in gardens and spending time with his family. He will be missed by everyone who's lives he touched.

Ernest leaves his wife, Darlene; a son, Larry Lidbeck; two daughters, Penny (Alan) Hildebrand and Tammy (Chris) Clash; seven grandchildren, Amanda (Jason) Steinbach, Brittany, Joseph, Nicholas, and Tiffany Hildebrand and Corey and Tyler Clash; one great-granddaughter, Paige Steinbach; and many nieces and nephews.

Ernest was preceded in death by a brother, Don Lidbeck and a sister, Karen Hoes.

Visitation will be Thursday from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. at American Martyrs Catholic Church in Kingsford.

A memorial Mass will follow Thursday at 11 a.m. at the church. Fr. Joseph Gouin will offer the Mass of Christian Burial.

Burial will be in Quinnesec Cemetery.

Condolences may be expressed to the family of Ernest Lidbeck online at www.ernashfuneralhomes.com.

The family has entrusted the Erickson-Rochon and Nash Funeral Home of Iron Mountain with the funeral arrangements.
