“ My deepest condolences to Ray, Teddy and the whole family for your loss. Evelyn was one of the sweetest ladies I knew when we were growing up and like all the other Mother's on Brown street, looked after us all.

She will be deeply missed!

“ We remember when Anita made a beautiful stuffed rabbit and sent it to her. We seen a pic. holding it she had such a great smile! We love her so very much. We are so thankful for all the help she received in her last years. Just looking at her you could tell she was one of greatest people that have and will ever live.

“ I am greatly saddened by the passing of your Mother and Grandmother. She was always in my thoughts as the years passed by. I've always referred to her as my second mother. As I grew older and came back to visit family and friends ,myself and my wife and children always had time to stop and visit with Ev and Archie. Ev you will be sadly missed by all who knew you.

*Bye for now
