

Faye Veesper

March 15, 1932 - March 6, 2023

Faye Veesper, age 90, of Farmington Hills, MI, and more recently Kingsford, MI, passed away peacefully on March 6, 2023. Despite leaving the U.P. after high school, it always remained home to her, and she returned for the final year of her life.

Faye was born on May 15, 1932 in Iron River, Michigan, the daughter of Catherine and Walter Anderson. Before graduating from Iron River High School, she met her high school sweetheart, Jack Veesper, whom she married on June 20, 1953. Faye and Jack began their life together wherever the U.S. Air Force sent them. By far their favorite station, which later became their special vacation spot, was Bermuda. After the service, they settled in the Detroit area. While Jack advanced his career at IBM, Faye made a comfortable and loving home for their family. It was truly a labor of love. Even with all her children and most of her grandchildren well into adulthood, she often said with affection, “a mother’s work is never done.”

Faye’s great gift was her capacity to love and support those around her. She was devoted to her family and friends, who loved and respected her in turn. Faye approached each phase of her long life with strength, courage, and grace. Soft spoken by nature, she had a quick wit and contagious laugh. She enjoyed reading, developed a love for golf later in life, cherished time with family, and savored the simplicity of bakery bread and fresh blueberries. The memory of her kindness, loyalty, strength and love will live on in our hearts.

Faye was preceded in death by her husband, Jack; her parents; her brother, Dalwin "Bud" Anderson; her sisters, Alice Quaintance and Sharon Palmer; and many sisters-in-law and brothers-in-law.

She is survived by her five children, Kathy (Cam) Knight, Pat (Paul) Beauchamp, John (Elizabeth) Veeser, Tim Veeser (Jimena Loveluck), and Elizabeth Veeser-Sharer (Jeff Sharer); nine grandchildren; three great grandchildren; one brother, Tom (Pam) Anderson; two sisters, Lynn (Rick) Taetsch and Carol (Gene) Bissing; and numerous nieces and nephews.

A Memorial Mass will be held at American Martyrs Catholic Church in Kingsford, Michigan, on Friday, March 10th at 11:00 AM with a luncheon to follow. Her interment at Rest Haven Cemetery will be planned after winter.

Condolences may be expressed to the family of Faye Veeser online at www.erickson-rochon-nash.com

The family has entrusted the Erickson-Rochon & Nash Funeral Home of Iron Mountain with arrangements.

“ We are sorry to hear of Faye's passing. Faye was the most calm, kind and caring person who always had time for her family and friends. My Mom, Elsie Gawry, brother David Gawry and I are holding all the Veeseer family close in our thoughts and prayers. Faye and Jack have always been a family presence in my life. Dad, Ted Gawry, grew up with Faye and Jack in Iron River. Jack brought my Dad into IBM thereby changing the trajectory of our family. Dad retired with 27 years at IBM...and I recently retired as an IBM Executive with 34 years. But we all remember and cherish the times our families spent together - ice skating, swimming..but mostly laughing. God Speed Faye...say hello to my Dad.

“ To my brother in law Tim, as well as Kathy, Pat, John, and Elizabeth, I send my sincere and heartfelt condolences on the loss of your mother. As Jimena’s brother, I was able to spend time with Faye and Jack over the years. I always found our time together enjoyable and full of laughter. I can’t say that I remember what we laughed about, but I definitely remember that we laughed a lot! Timmy Bear, you and your siblings, and all of your children, are the best testament to who Faye was and to the life that she led. I hope that in the difficult days that lie ahead, each of you will find some comfort in beautiful memories of Faye, she was such a lovely person.

Faye was always part of my life from my birth to her death. She was such a good friend to her sister in law, my mom. We had many wonderful conversations and she had such a calm, caring presence about her. Perfect match for Jack. Our family wants to send our deepest condolences and wish we could be there in person to hug you all. You are all in our thoughts, prayers and hearts. Godspeed Aunt Faye!
