“ Dear Uncle Lee,

It has been so many years since all of us Sharrow Grandchildren have seen you, but it still feels like yesterday. I can remember grandma and grandpa Sharrow letting us know you were coming.....we would wait all day. As soon as we saw you pull up, we would be running down the street to see you both. When we would visit Iron Mountain, we always wanted to see you. I remember Auntie Ferns homemade candy. Always in a bowl. If I remember correctly, it was by front door. My sympathy goes out to you and your family. Maybe one day, I can sneak in back of dads car ( Melvin ), and go with him to see you. We all think of you both. Miss you much. And will say a prayer. Grandpa is probably cooking for her right now, asking about you. Hope you are well. Love, Kerrie Sharrow Diem
