

Frances Greppi

May 27, 2009

NIAGARA, Wis. - Frances "Trudy" Greppi, 79, of Niagara, formerly of Pembine, died Wednesday, May 27, 2009, at Dickinson County Memorial Hospital with family members at her side.

She was born on March 25, 1930, in Niagara, the daughter of the late Jacob and Johanna (Beagush) Zigman.

She married Walter Greppi on Oct. 29, 1966, in Milwaukee. The couple lived in Milwaukee until 1967, when they moved to Pembine. He preceded her in death in 1992. T

Trudy was a member of St. Margaret Catholic Church in Pembine. She was a "surrogate mother" to Fr. Michael Betley, making him meals for nine years. Trudy was a wonderful cook and baker and enjoyed sharing her food with others. She also enjoyed being outside and working in her yard.

She is survived by a special niece, Patti (Tom) Carlson of Iron Mountain; a niece, Judy (Tim) Phillips of Niagara; nephews, Lawrence DuFord of Iron Mountain, Donald (Norma) Zigman of Hales Corners, Wis. and Bob Zigman of Iron Mountain; a sister-in-law, Elsie Zigman of Niagara; a step-daughter, Judith (Richard) McConnell of Mulberry, Fla., a step-granddaughter, Debra Wolfe of Tampa, Fla., and many nieces, nephews, great-nieces and great-nephews.

Trudy was preceded in death by five brothers and three sisters.

Visitation will be Tuesday from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m. at St. Margaret Catholic Church in Pembine.

Funeral services will follow at 11 a.m. at the church. Fr. Michael Betley will offer the Mass of Christian Burial.

Burial will be in the Pembine Cemetery.
