

Frank Fiorani

December 21, 1924 - December 21, 2011

Frank E. Fiorani, 87, of Iron Mountain, died Wed. Dec. 21, 2011 at Freeman Nursing and Rehabilitation Community. He was born on March 8, 1924 in Iron Mountain, the son of the late Peter and Santina (Piermattei) Fiorani.

Frank graduated from Iron Mountain High School in 1942. He served in the US Army during World War II. Frank worked as a railway mail clerk for the U.S. Postal Service.

He married Muriel Pearson on Oct. 19, 1946 at Epiphany Catholic Church in Menominee, MI . The couple enjoyed traveling and golfing together. They traveled to Italy, France, Alaska, Hawaii, Florida, and had an audience with the Pope. They also enjoyed going on many baseball and golf tours. On Oct. 19, 2011, they celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary.

Frank was very athletic and enjoyed playing semi-pro baseball, softball, and basketball. He also enjoyed golfing and bowling. Frank coached Little League Baseball and he enjoyed watching all sports on TV. He was a die-hard Cubs fan since 1936. He will be remembered as a loving and generous husband, father, and grandfather.

He was a member of St. Mary and St. Joseph Catholic Church, Pine Grove Country Club, U.C.T., Uren-Cooper-Johnson American Legion Post #50, and the D.A.V.

Frank is survived by his wife Muriel, two daughters Diane (Dennis) Tamburo of Washington, MI and Christine (Jerry) Farley of Duluth, MN, two granddaughters Amy Erickson of Swartz Creek, MI and Megan Farley of Duluth, MN, and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by four brothers and two sisters.

Private family services will be held. Burial will be in Cemetery Park.
