“ My father Bill Beitel grew up with Frank they were very close friends and hunting and fishing buddies.

You would never find anyone that loved hunting and fishing as much as Frank did. Even the rain would not keep him from being in his boat on the lake with a canvas over his head to shelter him from the rain.

I also idolized Frank as an all-around sportsman and person. I know I will never forget him

God Bless you Frank.

“ Frank was a special person, one that I idolized when I was a kid. Along with my dad, the late Bill Beitel, we used to fish with Frank on a regular basis when we would come north in the summers from Detroit. As a kid, I loved to listen to the stories that Frank would tell about the old hunting camp at Carney Lake. I even saved the old newspaper article about the 28 lb pike that he speared in Moon Lake. Frank will surely be missed! Especially by this old kid!
