“ Grandpa,
You were not only a soldier, great father, and a great husband..but you were a great influence in my life. The world is a little less bright with you not in it. You were like a father to me, and i will always cherish the good times we had. I know you are now up there watching over me, like my own personal guardian angel. And i know we will meet again later in life. i miss you so much! and i love you always and i am so proud to tell the world that you were my grandpa!
