

George Anderson,

October 20, 2006

IRON MOUNTAIN - George E. Anderson Sr., 57, of 1621 Parkview Drive in Iron Mountain, died Friday, Oct. 20, 2006, at Dickinson County Memorial Hospital in Iron Mountain.

He was born on April 20, 1949, in Norway, son of the late E. William and Lucile (Tracy) Anderson. He was a lifelong resident of the area and as a child, George enjoyed many summers with his family at Spread Eagle, Wis.

He graduated from Iron Mountain High School in 1967. He attended the University of Tampa and later graduated from Northern Michigan University with a degree in business and economics.

George married Boofer Meneghini on July 21, 1973, at St. Mary Catholic Church in Norway. He was a wonderful husband and father, and a good, loyal friend to many. Anyone who knew him loved his tremendous sense of humor and wit. He loved spending time with his family at Spread Eagle. George enjoyed Harley Davidson motorcycles, golf and water skiing. He was vice president and the chief administrative officer at MJ Electric in Iron Mountain. George was a member of Pine Grove Country Club, the Chippewa Club, 6-7-8, and AA, which he was very proud of.

He is survived by his wife, Boofer; two children; George (Carla) Anderson of Kingsford and Martha (Mark) Wolff of Norway; three grandchildren, Lindsay, Nicholas, and Lily Chapman; one brother, William (Linda) Anderson of Plymouth and one sister, Martha Anderson Torlak of Chicago; a nephew, William (Amy) Anderson; nieces, Tracy (Brian) Rosewarne and Katherine Anderson and fiance John Sytniak; his mother-in-law, Dorothy Meneghini; brothers-in-law and sisters-in-law, Dennis and Maxine Meneghini, Lee and Marge Meneghini, Lynne and Charles Wiethoff, Monica and Alan Erickson, Neil and Karen Meneghini, Mark and Pam Meneghini and Elise and Richard Hermsen; numerous nieces and nephews; and his very special friend, Stephen J. Reiten.

In addition to his parents, E. William Anderson and Lucile (Tracy) Anderson, he was preceded in death by his father-in-law, Edwin C. Meneghini and a very special young woman, Jennifer VanOss.

Friends may call from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m. today at the Erickson-Rochon & Nash Funeral Home in Iron Mountain.

Funeral services will be held on Tuesday at 11 a.m. at the First Presbyterian Church in Kingsford. Rev. Michael March will officiate.

Burial will be in Cemetery Park.

Pallbearers will be Stephen Reiten, Kevin Sullivan, Marc Mogan, David Sand, Richard Ring and Michael Horton.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the First Presbyterian Church Relief Fund.

Condolences may be expressed to the family of George Anderson online at www.ernashfuneralhomes.com

The family has entrusted the Erickson-Rochon and Nash Funeral Home of Iron Mountain with the funeral arrangements.

“ This isn't a memory but I truly wish I knew you Grandpa George. Everyone tells me how much you would've loved me. From what I've heard you're really funny and caring. And I heard you liked south park or would just make "I thought they killed Kenny" jokes and I love that. I think we would've got a long great. I hope you have a peaceful afterlife Grandpa George.

“Boofer and family, We are deeply saddened by the passing of George, he was a wonderful person that we are proud to have called "friend". You and your family will be in our hearts and prayers as you all struggle through the difficult times ahead. If comfort can be found in knowing others share your sorrow and also the happiness that was George Anderson then know you are comforted. Our love and friendship Mark & Val Edens, Dublin, GA

“ I am sorry to read about the passing of your love one. I send my sincere condolences to the family and friends. When the enemy death strikes our grief can be great. It is at times like this that we need comfort and support whether we are acquainted or not. May you rely on the Father of tender mercies, the God of all Comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulations. Yes, Our Heavenly Father has promised to sustain you because he cares. You also have many wonderful memories to cherish, hold on to the memories that you have, for all has not been forgotten. Our Heavenly Father has promised in the near future to bring about the ?resurrection?. Yes, your dearly beloved one will not be forgotten by you or our Heavenly Father, Jehovah. (Acts 24:15 Psalm 37: 29). May the scriptures at Revelation 21: 1-5 prove to be a source of great comfort for you now and in the days to come. Once again, you have my sincere condolences.
