“When I started working for the Post Office 25 years ago, Jack was the nicest, most helpful and understanding. He sure made things more fun around there too. Always got me to laugh! Through the years, I'm so glad I got to call him a friend and got the chance to know the family. The thing I feel so badly about is that I didn't get the chance to work with him longer. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
