“ My memories of Glenn are many: Seeing him breezing into Oliva's looking like a movie star. Stopping at my parents after hunting of fishing to have coffee and dessert or lunch with Jack and Ruth. Hearing "Glent" (as my dad called him) tell fishing stories and Jack stories. Running his logging equipment in our yard to remove some large boulders (he was a master at handling that huge machine). Hearing his oft repeated story of how he saw me for the first time with "the gorilla". Though he is gone, as long as memory exists, he remains alive in the hearts and minds of those who knew him. "To live in hearts we leave behind is not to die." ? Thomas Campbell, (poet and author). Gordy and I and my daughters extend our sympathy. May God give you peace and solace and may your family and friends give comfort and support.
