“ I just returned from west coast. When glancing through the newspapers found the sad news that Gordon had past away. I enjoyed the friendship of Gordy and the Hicks family for many years through church (Iron Mountain First UMC), it's MYF group, and HopeHouse. He always had a smile it seemed like whenever we would meet somewhere. My sympathies and prayers to the entire Hicks Family.

“ My deepest sympathy to all of you, Gordy was such a sweet man. Loved visiting with him every time he came into whispering pines by himself and when he was with his grandsons. He was a very talented man, will be missed.

“ So sorry to hear of Gordy's passing. Your family, and our community, lost an amazing man. He was always ready to help with anything at the drop of the hat. Our project became his priority as he embraced it and taught us what and how he was doing it. Our "help" was to stay out of his way. He will be sorely missed. Jon & Lori
