

Gregory Diamond

March 2, 1963 - March 2, 2011

Gregory Wayne Diamond, 48, of Iron Mountain, died Wednesday March 2, 2011, in Show Low, Arizona, while on a business trip.

Greg was born in Seattle, Washington, on January 23, 1963, the son of G. Warren and R. Elaine (Mikkelsen) Diamond. He graduated from Lindbergh High School in Renton, Washington, in 1981, and from the University of Washington in 1986 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Pulp and Paper Science and Technology. After graduation, Greg began his 25-year career in the paper industry. He relocated to Vancouver, Washington, to work for James River Paper Company. Greg began working for Champion Paper Company in Quinnesec, Michigan in 1989. In 1995, Greg began working for Albany International. At the time of his death, Greg was Product Manager-Publication Grades for US Dryer Fabrics for Albany International.

While working in Vancouver, he met Beverly Proffitt. They married in Gresham, Oregon, on February 23, 1991. Together, they moved to the Upper Peninsula of Michigan and built a wonderful life together. Their son Drew was born May 2, 1995. Their daughter Demi was born May 9, 1997. As an Eagle Scout, Greg enjoyed being involved in scouting with Drew. He also loved the time he spent working with Drew in the garage. Greg cherished his time with Demi, his "Little Bear," as well. He was so proud of Demi's academic achievements, creativity, and outstanding athletic abilities. Greg was a devoted and loving husband to Bev.

Greg is survived by his wife, Beverly, son Drew, and daughter Demi, all of Iron Mountain, Michigan. Greg is also survived by his mother R. Elaine Diamond of Renton, Washington; sister Kathleen Diamond Jensen, niece Kelsay Jensen and nephews Luke and Mark Jensen of Great Falls, Montana; mother-in-law and father-in-law Mary and Ken Proffitt of Gresham, Oregon; his sisters-in-law Barbara (Garry) Lewis and nephew Devin and niece Jennifer Lewis of Gresham, Oregon; Brenda (Dave) Caseday, nephew Brandon, nieces Breana and Kaitlyn Caseday of Damascus, Oregon; Becky (Frank) Hubbard of Gresham, Oregon; and his uncle, aunts, and cousins. Greg also leaves his cherished friends, who have become much like family over the last twenty years. Greg was preceded in death by his father G. Warren Diamond.

Greg had many hobbies, including anything involving motor sports. The standing competition amongst his "hot rod" buddies was who had the highest cylinder count. Greg was certainly a top finisher with a total of 83 cylinders. Greg was full of life, love, humor and wit. He had an infectious laugh and a smile that lit up the room. Greg was also determined; nothing could stand in his way. He expected the best, without exception, from himself and anyone in his circle of family, friends, and associates.

Visitation will be Wednesday, March 9, 2011, from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m. at Erickson-Rochon & Nash Funeral Home and Thursday, March 10, 2011 from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m. at the First Presbyterian Church. Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. Thursday, March 10, 2011, at the First Presbyterian Church. Rev. Michael March will officiate.

In lieu of flowers, a memorial fund in Greg's name will be established.

Condolences to the family can be expressed online at www.ernashfuneralhomes.com.

Erickson-Rochon & Nash Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

“ Greg and I were close college friends our last 2 years at UW in fact we roomed together our Senior year and for about a year together after we finished school in Vancouver. He was a wonderful classmate, friend and of course roommate that would have done anything for you. I remember meeting his wife back on that first day in Vancouver and am truly sorry we lost track of each other in the last decade. It had to do with him moving and our busy work and family lives. Regardless, I never forget of our Dr. Diamond and the jokes we played on each other back in college, while we all got through those demanding and stressful times. Our senior year, I couldn't get home over thanksgiving due to weather and I spent the entire day with his family a memory I never forgot. His folks and sister were just like him then, truly amazing. Even all these years later I could write a small book on the stories about Greg from school and our rooming together for about 2 years. Greg, I am sorry this Greg couldn't better keep in touch, so from Ode to Dr. Diamond I wish you the best as you ride off into the sunset in the wonderful old Corvette you loved so much. IF there is a further family event here in the Pacific NW in the future, please let me know. Thank you, Greg Odegaard (gregodegaard@yahoo.com)

“ My heart is torn to read what the daughter wrote..... my deepest sympathy to the entire family and may peace be with his "bear"..... your father was a very, very good person with much to offer, including the highest of values. I can assure you, he taught you well and to be strong and to live a life with meaning and consideration for others and know that he is watching carefully over you every minute. May you have comfort. I am sorry I didn't know of this til now, peace be with you.

“ *To all the Diamond Family,
My father just called me with this tragic news.
Greg and I were in School and Boy Scouts together. I will always remember being so welcome at his parents home after School or on weekends.
I consider Greg my best friend, even though we lost track of each other these past few years.
My thoughts are with you.*

“ Dear Bev, Drew, Demi, Elaine and Kathy,

You all have my sincerest and most heartfelt condolences with Greg's passing. I'm certain words alone can be only a small comfort for your loss at this time, please know there are many who share this loss with you. As evidenced by the outpouring of warm stories about Greg's character, humor, wit and devotion as a husband and father, he was much loved by many.

I've known Greg for about 35 years and though we ended up thousands of miles apart after college, we continued to stay in close contact. My family has many great memories of our visit a couple of years ago to what Greg affectionately referred to as his slice of paradise, and it was easy to see why.

I deeply cherished our incredibly diverse conversations over the years, phone and e-mail, whether it was politics, technology, the economy, life in the UP or the wisdom of his addiction to engine cylinders.....I have dozens upon dozens of e-mails that will now provide fond memories of a truly remarkable person who will be missed coast to coast.

My blessings and thoughts are with all of you.
