“ Greta was the remedial reading teacher when I started teaching at Iron Mountain. I was teaching first grade, and she was a wonderful mentor. She was down to earth and had a great sense of humor. Thoughts and prayers go out to the family.

“ When I was in my earliest teens I spent a lot of time at the Betti's house with Mike, who was a neighborhood friend. She was a great mom, no-nonsense, and she kept us outside playing, riding our bikes or fixing something. They had a hand pump well in the yard and we'd fill up a container every now and then. Occasionally we'd go inside for something, or she'd offer us a snack. For a period in time, she was a mom away from home.
