“ Hello, my name is Bro. Wilson and I am from Douglasville, GA. I work at King's Way Baptist Church along with your cousin Betsy Osborn. Her sister Jessica informed me of your situation and I wanted you to know we have been and will be praying for you. There is nothing people can say to replace the void in your life no matter how hard they try. I dont know what it is like to lose a child but our Pastor does. His 13 year old daughter was killed in a car crash in 1997. He has written a book about it and I will mail you a copy. In time if you feel up to reading it, I believe it will help. He has traveled this less desireable road and knows how to overcome it from a Christians stand point I can't offer any magic words to take away your pain but only comforting scriptures in which I am sure you already are aware of. Romans 8:28, Psalms 116:15, I Thessalonians 4:14-18. We dont know you, but you are family of people who are dear to my wife and I and for that we will hold you up in our prayers and thoughts just as if it was our family. God bless, Bro. Wilson

“ I am a teacher at King's Way where your cousin, Betsy, works; and I was so deeply saddened to hear about the loss of your precious baby. There are no words that could really help you during this time; except to say, stay close to God and trust Him. There must be a bigger plan that we as humans cannot understand. Just know that my family is praying for you and that this will take time to heal. Whenever you hit a low time, ask for God's help.

Sincerely,

The Conway's
