“ There are too many memories I could share. One of my many favorites is my wedding day. My Dad was able to help marry us because of being a deacon. Well he was walking me down the aisle he handed AJ his cane instead of my hand. AJ's facial expression was priceless. He was confused. He was expecting my hand not a cane. Lol My Dad lifted my veil, kissed my cheek, took his cane back, and handed my hand to AJ with a smirk. ❤️
