

Heide Herzog

September 8, 2006

HOT SPRINGS VILLAGE, Ark. - Heide Herzog of Hot Springs Village, Ark., passed on to a better place on Friday, Sept. 8, 2006, after a tough fight with colon cancer.

She was born in Berlin, Germany and came to the United States in 1962. Everyone knew her as a caring, "to the point" individual and a true friend. She was a beloved wife, mother, sister, sister-in-law, aunt and Oma. Heide spent all of her life living each day to the fullest. She also cared for everyone more than herself and always put her family ahead of her thoughts or feelings.

She is survived by her husband, Bill; son, Michael and his wife Dianne of Fairhope, Ala. and their children, Benjamin and Cameron; daughter, Julie and son-in-law Bill Mosher of Denver; sister Ursula Riebe of Berlin; mother-in-law, Lillice Herzog of Randville; several nieces and nephews; many close friends; and sisters in Beta Sigma Phi.

Memorials can be made to Arkansas Hospice or the Hot Springs Village Humane Society (her pet Tyler was always by her side).

Visitation will be at the Tondin-Ross & Freeman Funeral Home in Iron Mountain from 10 a.m. until noon on Saturday, Sept. 16, 2006, followed by a church service at 12:30 p.m. at the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church.

Monsignor James Kaczmarek will officiate. Internment will be the at Iron Mountain Cemetery.

Condolences may be expressed to the family of Heide Herzog online at www.tondinfuneralhome.com

The Tondin-Ross and Freeman Funeral Home is assisting the family with arrangements.
