"Henning Johnson"

IRON MOUNTAIN ? Henning V. Johnson, 87, of 706 West C St., Iron Mountain, died Tuesday, Sept. 23, 2003, at Dickinson County Memorial Hospital.

Henning was born on Jan. 21, 1916, in Sandpoint, Idaho, son of the late Victor and Sandra (Oman) Johnson. He graduated from Felch High School in 1933. He married the former Elsie Mackie on Nov. 16, 1939, in Chicago. Henning served as a sergeant with the United States Army Engineers during World War II from 1943-1946. He worked as a carpenter and mill worker for Carpenters Union Local 1027 at O.V. Palmquist in Chicago for 27 years retiring in 1981. He was a member of Our Saviours Lutheran Church and the Uren-Cooper-Johnson American Legion Post 50. Henning enjoyed music, gardening and working outdoors.

He was preceded in death by two brother, Melvin and Alvin, and two sisters, Thyra Johnson and Winifred Eastman.

He is survived by his wife, Elsie; a daughter, Susan Maccoy of Chicago; a sister, Alice Schmieder of Marysville, Wash., and many nieces and nephews.

Memorial services will be held at 11:30 a.m. Tuesday, Sept. 30, at the Erickson-Rochon & Nash Funeral Home in Iron Mountain. Rev. Jerry Christensen will officiate. Burial will be in the Foster City Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, a memorial will be established in his memory at Our Saviours Lutheran Church.

Condolences may be expressed to the Henning Johnson Family at www.ernashfuneralhomes.com.

The family has entrusted the Erickson-Rochon & Nash Funeral Home with arrangements.

“ Dear Elsie and Susan,

My Aunt Ruth called to let us know that Henning had passed last week. Dad and I were very sad to hear the news. Although you are many miles away, our thoughts and prayers are with you and with Henning also.
