The following poem entitled "Our Mom" expresses a lot about who Ida was and how she lived her life.

She was a wonderful lady to say the least, Who had given others such pleasure, With her generous ways and a heart of gold, She's a mother we always will treasure.

She loved to talk on the telephone, Some days you would say she's just rambling, You would turn around and then she was gone, Where's Ida? She must have gone gambling.

She loved to cook and she loved to bake, And of course she loved to dance, She enjoyed her canning and loved to shop, She'd spot a bargain at a glance.

With older eyes and a wiser heart, We can all look back and see, That we owe her a lifetime of love and thanks, For her love and loyalty

So thank you, Mom for all you've done, For making our house a home, We love you and God bless you Mom,

To you we dedicate this poem. Love, Barbara, Janice, Susie and Marilyn.
