“ My condolences to all of Ina's family on such a great loss. I met Ina through my Mom, Phyllis Spangler, who was her neighbor up the hill at the facility where Hulst Manor was. I have already forgotten the name of it. My mother loved Ina and would always worry about her doing too much. We just couldn't keep those women still, they were always doing something they shouldn't have been doing. It's hard to keep a good woman down. Ina was so good to our Mom and I know she felt bad when Mom died two years ago on September 28, 2010. I'm sure besides everyone else who went before her, Mom would have been there to greet and welcome her as well.

“ I am so proud to have had such an inspirational and beautiful grandmother. Talented, independent, and wise, but also the most kind and loving woman. I have learned that all things in life are possible because she accomplished so much in such a short time. Just looking at all of her hairstyling tools I can't even imagine all the beauty she has created in the world. I will never forget our last words. I love you. Like my brother said I will see you soon, beautiful. It is never good bye.

“ My Mother - I will miss her every day. She left us at a very young age but she fought a hard battle right to the end. She was surrounded by her family - and friends who loved her very much. She opened her eyes and looked at all of us in the room and said "What a Bunch! I love you all!" She is no longer in pain - she is at peace - and she is smiling and dancing once again - where there is eternal happiness!

My Mother was a smoker - her message to all of us would be to quit smoking. I watched her struggle for every breath. She asked my nephew Matthew to put down the cigarettes and he did!

She is now in heaven and proudly watching over each and every one of us! Let's make her proud!

I love you always Mom...
