“ We were saddened to learn of Inga's passing from Dan's Aunt Merna Wolfslayer. We kept in touch with Inga for many years through Christmas Cards and letters. Inga was always very sweet and sincere in her letters. Grandma Sigrid spoke fondly of Inga. Our sympathy to friends and family.

“ I was so sorry to hear of Inga's passing. I have too, many memories of Inga, as she was a part of our family for many, many years. She never, ever missed a birthday- and always gave us a crisp 5 dollar bill at Christmas time. She was a very sweet and genuine person and I hope she is at peace.

“ My dad sang in the Trinity Methodist choir with Inga when I was growing up. He and my mom died at age 62 and we have pictures of the choir in those early years. I remember her playing her violin, too. My parents would have been 96 and 95. My condolences to you on her death. It brought back good memories of my childhood when I read about her life.
