

Irene Hayes

November 6, 1931 - November 6, 2004

"Irene Hayes"

NIAGARA, Wis. - Irene Alice Hayes, 73, of Niagara, died Saturday, Nov. 6, 2004, in Kingsford.

She was born Nov. 19, 1930, in Niagara, the daughter of the late Dewey and Irene (Peters) Freeman.

Alice was a lifelong resident of the area. She worked at Rodman's Bridge Inn for more than 20 years.

She was a member of American Martyrs Catholic Church and enjoyed making crafts, sewing, gardening, and playing cards.

Alice especially enjoyed helping others and in their time of need, she would be the first one there to lend a hand.

She married Eddie Hayes in July of 1954 in Kingsford.

Alice is survived by her husband, Eddie; one son, Patrick of Kingsford; one daughter, Shelley Liljequist of Kingsford; one brother, Morris "Bruce" (Rozanne) Freeman of Niagara; three sisters, Anna Mae (Ray) Larsch of Kingsford, Janet Davis of Niagara and Gladys Van Den Heuvel of Pembine; two special grandchildren Lola and Kyle Liljequist of Kingsford; and many nieces, nephew, and cousins.

She was preceded in death by four brothers, Clarence "Dennix" Freeman, George Freeman, John Rufus Freeman and Edwin "Putty" Freeman and two sisters, Carmen Harvath and Mabel Chartier.

Visitation was held Tuesday from 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. at the Tondin-Ross &

Freeman Funeral Home of Iron Mountain.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. at the funeral home. Fr. Joseph Gouin officiated. Burial was in the Quinnesec Cemetery.

Condolences can be expressed online to the family of Alice Hayes at www.tondinfuneralhome.com.

The Tondin-Ross & Freeman Funeral Home assisted the family with arrangements.

This obituary was inadvertently omitted from Tuesday's Daily News.

“ *Eddie/Pat/Shelley, Alice will be missed by all who knew and loved her. Last night at the visitation, both Mike and I thanked Alice, once again, for all her help when Pat and Mike Rodman were sick. Alice really kept things going with the business and her support was never forgotten over the years. I would imagine in heaven, Patsy held open her arms, smiled and said "Hi Alice! I am happy to see you." May the Lord watch over you all in the days to come. Alice was a very special lady to the entire Rodman family.
