“ I was very sorry to hear of Loop's passing. I will miss her letters and talking to her on the phone to get the latest news from Iron Mountain. We'll also miss the visits we had with Loop when my wife and I would come up on vacation. Loop showed a rough exterior, but was a softie and had much compassion. Who will tend to my relatives' grave sites now?

The Schinderles lived next door to my grandfather's home on Main St., and Loop told me it was my grandfather who nicknamed her when she was a little girl. She was always jumping and hopping around him, so he started calling her 'luppolo', which in Italian means hopper or jumper.

“ I was sorry to hear of Loop's passing. While I grew up, she was a staple at Oliva's. "Loop de Loop" was a good friend to my grandmother, Frances Corsi-my mother is Penny- and she always came to see Grandma. She certainly was "one-of-a-kind" and her loving friendship will be missed by many. My thoughts are with your family.-Kristen (Lindholm) Benedict
