“ Dear Dick, Ann and Family,
I want to express my condolences to you at the loss of your mother. She was quite a lady. She was one of the first ones to greet me when I arrived at I.C. Parish so many years ago. I will never forget her smile and warmth!

She was also a very, very faithful sacristan. Each day she would trudge to Church in the rain, sunshine or the snow to make sure that everything was set up for Mass. She was so faithful.

May God grant her Eternal Peace and may He bring you comfort and peace in these most difficult days.

My thought and prayers go out to you.
