

Jack Phillips

November 9, 1922 - November 9, 2005

"Jack Phillips"

IRON MOUNTAIN - Jack Stephen Phillips, 83, of W8176 S. U.S. 2, Iron Mountain, died Wednesday, Nov. 9, 2005, at his home.

He was born in Sarnia, Ontario, Canada, the son of the late Burt and Florence (Smith) Phillips.

Jack was a B-17 pilot for the Army Air Corps during World War II.

He married Mildred Daley on Jan. 29, 1945, in Dyersburg, Tenn. The couple moved to Iron Mountain in 1972, when they purchased the Keel Ridge Motel, now the Days Inn, which they have operated for the past 33 years.

Jack enjoyed woodworking and carpentry.

He is survived by his wife, Mildred; his son, Stephen (Patrice) of Homestead, Wis.; two sisters, Grace Blitz of Indianapolis and Evelyn Staehle of Broomfield, Colo.; and two grandsons, Christopher Stephen (Anna) of New York City and Nicholas Stephen of Sussex, Wis.

He was preceded in death by a brother, Robert.

Visitation will be held on Sunday from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. at the Erickson-Rochon & Nash Funeral Home.

Funeral services will be held at 3 p.m. on Sunday at the funeral home. Rev. David Anderson will officiate.

Burial will be Cemetery Park.

Graveside military rites will be accorded by the Uren-Cooper-Johnson American Legion Post 50.

In lieu of flowers, memorials can be made to Northwoods Airlifeline, where Jack's son Stephen is a pilot.

Condolences may be expressed to the family of Jack Phillips online at www.ernashfuneralhomes.com.

The family has entrusted the Erickson-Rochon and Nash Funeral Home of Iron Mountain with the funeral arrangements.

“ To Nick, Chris (Anna whom we don't know), Pat, Steve, and Millie, our deepest sympathy as you say goodbye to your wonderful grandfather, father, father-in-law, and life partner. You all felt like family when our boys played ball together, and Millie and Jack were like grandparents to Ben during those summers and we will never forget the friendship we shared.

Best wishes to you all
