“ I am so sorry for your loss. Psalms 146:5 says: Happy is the one who has the God of Jacob as his helper. Whose hope is in his God. Please go to him and taste and see that he is willing and able to give you the needed strength and help to get through any circumstances that may arise because he love us and know the pain that death brings to families. Please find some comfort from these few facts in your time of need.
