“ Jim was a wonderful man who I was blessed to know. I pray for strength within his family to deal with their loss. Bev, you are in my thoughts and prayers daily, as is Wendy and the kids. May you find some peace in Jim's freedom from pain. He will be with you, and watching over you, for all time.

“ Jim was a special person. He always was looking out for the other person, making sure they had a good time, or were being taken care of.. The Lord gave me a year extra, since Jim found out about the cancer, to re-connect has had some wonderful visits. I will treasure those times always. It has always been very comforting to know that he had such a wonderful wife, who has taken care of him for all of these years. It has been a pleasure to see the two of them together, to see what a good marriage is suppose to be! God's blessings to you Bev, Brian, Debbie, Wendy, ^ Jamie, & all of the grandchildren, whom he loved to be around. To know that Jimmy is healed & has no more pain, is the best knowledge.
