

James Londree

January 18, 1941 - December 1, 2012

JAMES A. LONDREE,

71, of Iron Mountain, passed away on Saturday, Dec. 1, 2012 at Dickinson County Healthcare System. He was born on January 18, 1941 in Iron Mountain, son of the late Harvey and Dorothy (Cramer) Londree. Jim has been a resident of this area his entire life and worked as an Iron Pourer for Grede Foundries for thirty seven years, retiring in 2002. Jim loved to fish and also enjoyed cooking, playing golf, reading Louis LaMoir western novels, solving crossword puzzles and watching old western's on television. Over the past few years he has enjoyed spending the winter months in Arizona. He was also a member of the VFW auxiliary.

He is survived by his children, Wendee (Donald) Pete of Long Lake, WI, Tracy (Mace) Mattison of Amberg, WI, James "Scott" (Kim) Londree of Iron Mountain, Melissa (Bob) Ashburn of Amberg, WI, Jamie (Brian) Massicotte of Kingsford, Lonny Petermore of Minnesota and Kevin Petermore of New Jersey; his sister, Yvonne (Bruce) Bianco of Iron Mountain; brother, William (Stephanie) Londree of Ventura, CA; grandchildren, Skylynn (Doug) Nelson, Megan (Tom White) Mattison, Matthew (Anne) Nord, James C. Londree, Bryce (Chandra) Londree, Amber Londree, Keith Hanson, Ann Massicotte, Jordan Massicotte, Brittany and Kevin Petermore; nine great grandchildren. He was also survived by a special friend, whom he loved dearly, Dianne Izzo and his first wife and lifelong friend, Sandra Paquette.

In addition to his parents, Jim was preceded in death by his wife Mary and his brother Louis Londree.

Visitation will be on Saturday, Dec. 8th from 1:30-3:00 at the Erickson-Rochon & Nash Funeral Home of Iron Mountain. Memorial services will be at 3:00 P.M. at the funeral home. Rev. David Wilton will officiate.

“ I worked with Jimmy alot of years. He was a class act and it saddens me to hear he died. He poured his heart out for Grede all those years besides the iron.I know the slave labor place won`t even remember him. I know some of them are next to go. It`s a matter of time and time is getting shorter.s84
