

James Servia

September 5, 1918 - September 5, 2004

"James Servia"

QUINNESEC - James P. Servia, 86, of Quinnesec, died on Sunday, Sept. 5, 2004, at ManorCare Health Services in Kingsford.

He was born on Aug. 21, 1918, the son of the late John and Tresa (Varda) Servia.

Mr. Servia served in the U.S. Air Force during World War II. He worked as a welder for General Motors at the Fischer Body Plant in Maryland.

He moved to Quinnesec in 1977 from Baltimore and had belonged to St. Mary Catholic Church in Quinnesec. He enjoyed hunting, fishing, gardening, and bowling. He was a past officer of the Breen Senior Center.

He married Betty Volk on Feb. 18, 1944, in Baltimore. She preceded him in death on Dec. 5, 2000.

Mr. Servia is survived by two sons, John (Susan) of Oriental, N.C., and his children, Chris, Jeff, and Jordan; and James (Pam) Jr. and his three children; and one sister, Irene VanGoethem of Arizona.

He was also preceded in death by a brother, Edwin; and a sister, Ceil Grimord.

At the family's request, there will be no services.

Burial will be in the Quinnesec Cemetery.

Condolences can be expressed to the family of James Servia online at www.tondinross.com.

The Tondin-Ross & Freeman Funeral Home is assisting the family with arrangements.

Tribute Wall

TB

“ Jim & Pam, John & Sue. Please know you are in my thoughts and prayers. Like Mary, I'm thankful mom & Uncle Jim got together this summer. It's been a difficult year for everyone. Take care, Love
Theresa

Theresa Bartholomew - September 16, 2004 at 12:00 AM

MG

“ Dear John, Sue, Jim, and Pam,

We are sorry to hear about your Dad. I am so glad I was able to visit him this summer with my Mother. Hope all is well with you, and have a safe trip back home.

*Love
Mary*

Mary and Tom Gadzalinski - September 10, 2004 at 12:00 AM

RB

“ Please accept our sympathy for your loss. Your father was a long time customer of ours. We miss him.

Republic Bank - September 10, 2004 at 12:00 AM