“ Jim and family, So sorry to here the news of your father. I will never forget when I would go to your home and the Packers were playing how he would swear at Bart Starr. I think of him every time I swear at Brett Favre. He was sure proud of all of his kids. He would leave articles in my mailbox about your son. He said he would foloow my son in footbgall as well. I have class all morning so I will not be able to make the service. So may God Bless. Lefty
