

James Steinbrecher

June 24, 2005

"James Steinbrecher"

PORTLAND, Ore. - James E. "Stein" Steinbrecher, 32, of Portland, Ore., formerly of Norway, was granted eternal peace by our Lord on Friday, June 24, 2005.

He was born on Jan. 29, 1973, in Mount Clemens, lower Michigan, the son of James and Kay (Fontana) Steinbrecher of Norway.

Jimmy was a talented artist, musician, horticulturist, and an avid Packer fan. He was gifted with a wonderful sense of humor and a loving heart.

He is survived by his devoted love, Pam Chancey of Portland; his parents, James and Kay Steinbrecher of Norway; a sister, Nicole (Tom) Verrette; a niece, Haley Steinbrecher; a nephew, Marcus Verrette, all of Iron Mountain; and many aunts, uncles and cousins.

In respect of his wishes, Jimmy's ashes will be scattered in the Pacific Ocean and there will be no service or visitation.

Condolences may be expressed to the family of James Steinbrecher online at www.ernashfuneralhomes.com

“ I just heard the news about Stein yesterday; my brother was his best friend for 10+ years. Chris wanted me to pass along to you his thoughts and prayers to you all. . . Stein lives on in our hearts and memories. I have a treasured piece of granite that he etched of a popular street in Portland - he was so gifted. From our family to yours, Godspeed.
