“ Grandma i kno this is a little late and to all my family i am so sorry i wasnt there for her when she passed away. I honestly tried to do everything i could to get home from Afghanistan but they will not send us home for grandparents apparently the army doesnt recognize them as amediate family. Grandma i will miss u so much and bringing avah over for visits. She always put a smile on ur face. Rip grandma i love u

“ Always a warm, genuine, loving smile graced Aunt Jane's face. Two of my favorite memories are set in either her kitchen, where we undressed all those snow clothes and boots, or under the dining table on Christmas Eve, where Cindy and I (with other children), were hiding while we waited to see if we could catch Santa coming in. Sure enough, those big black boots and booming "Ho's Ho's" came in the front door and we watched, gleefully, from under our table-clothed hideout.

I feel so lucky to have these and many more sweet memories surrounding her wonderful, loving life.

“ Jane was my neighbor while we lived on H Street. She always watched as I mowed the lawn and then called over to come for a glass of ice water. I always enjoyed talking with her. She was a very sweet lady. My thoughts and prayers are with you as you travel this journey. My best to you all.
