“ Nannette.

I am so sorry for your loss. I didn't realize this was your mom. I worked with her at the breen center. I have been to her home to buy knives. I just saw her when I was home last at the bazaar at the church. Very surprised that she is gone. Take care. Thinking of you.

“ i have found few people in life that i have admired as much as Janette. I told her many times that 'when' i grew up (I'm 57) i want to be just like her! She was always dressed so sharp, every hair in place, with lipstick and her jewelry. Every time she would come in to pay her cable bill we would have a great laugh about her fabulous jewelry. I will miss seeing her. She was the highlight of my month. I enjoyed her not just as a fun customer, but as a friend.
