“ My sympathy to family and friends of my dear Milwaukee friend, Jean. We met at former Augustana and then Redemption Lutheran, and spent many hours tracing our Swedish genealogy and enjoying our heritage. Last week I visited Jean with a plant from church, little knowing it would be our last earthly visit. Her service is being held as I write this and wish I could be there. Thanks, Gary and Lori(?) for many years of caring for Dave & Jean. May God comfort all who mourn.

“ Dear Rose and family;

Please accept our sincere condolences on Jean's passing. Pat and I always enjoyed seeing her and Dave and visiting with them at the family gatherings.

We will never forget stopping to see them in April of 1968 after we married and took a short honey moon.

Your mom and Dad were two of my favorites and I remember going to a Tiger game and playing catch with Uncle Ivar.
