“ Dear Jeanne,
Thanks for all the wonderful knit creations I grew up wearing and all the laughs when Ida and Estelle, the Berg sisters, got together.

Also, I have to finally admit to you that you were right. I did deserve it when I drank too much at my sister's wedding reception and ruined my tuxedo.

Your loving nephew Paul

“ Aunt Jeanne was a special Aunt. Since she lived next door, I could always tease her. I remember when I was 5 years old, I knew she was afraid of snakes. To tease her, I found a snake and proudly walked up to her door and held up my snake. She said "Oh, that's nice!" and just smiled. Many years later, she told me how scared she was and how it took all of her willpower to not scream. It worked because I never did it again! She was a very wise Aunt! We have two of her homemade baskets in our house and I think of her every time I look at them. She was a wonderful friend for my Mother. At this time, I'm sure they are drinking coffee together again. May she rest in peace.

“ *Jeanne was such a special lady. There are many fond memories of shared family gatherings with the Romitti's and Langsford's, of which Jeanne was always present.
I am grateful that I knew her and thankful for her kindness.*
