“ Jeanne was my mom's (Dee Johnson) roommate at Manorcare. When Mom was first admitted, she was unable to visit with us, so we spent many hours visiting with Jeanne. What a wonderful and interesting lady. When they both moved upstairs, they were only two doors apart, so our visits easily continued. Thank you, Kathy, for sharing with me the meaning of your Moms cardinal collection. I will never again see a cardinal without thinking of her. God bless all of you and take peace in knowing that your mom was loved by all. I sure miss her smile.

“ Jeanne was my mother-in-law's roommate in Manor Care and our family came to know and love her. After they switched rooms we continued to visit with her as she had become very special to us. She will be missed!

*With deepest sympathy,
Ward and LeeAnn Johnson*
