“ Sorry to hear of the passing of my cousin Jeff. It's been at least 17 years since I've seen him. I'm thankful for the childhood memories I have of Jeff, his parents and his brother Don. I use to spend time at their house in the summers back in the late 60's. Rope swings that went out over the Menominee River, Hikes to Cowboy Lake and stock car races at a local track are a few of the fun things I remember from way back then.
Rest in Peace Jeff, and my deepest condolences to his wife Rose, his son, his brother Don and the rest of his family.

Sincerely,
Steve Romeis
