“ We went through the Catholic school and high school together. My most enduring memory of Jerry was his sense of humor. He was always quick to find the upside of a situation and exploit the silliness of anything that brought one 'down'. My condolences and sincere hopes that Jerry finds a new adventure in the next dimension...whatever that may be. Recalling him will always bring a smile to my face - and that of many others, I'll bet!

“ I fondly remember learning to dance in the big front room area at the Creed home, I think everyone in the neighborhood was there. Those were the good old days.
God Bless the Creed family, may the good Lord hold you all in the palm of his hand....Rest in Peace Jerry.
